

Silverpoint Court Residential Care Home residents remember the 60s

Our residents from Silverpoint Court Residential Care Home danced and sang to the 'Sounds of the Sixties' this week in our lounge.

They also shared fond memories of the decade which was lovely to hear and we hosted a quiz to see what they could remember from this period of time.

A great time was had by everyone who took part, reminiscing together.